DID YOU KNOW?

“A student may complete a degree program at the end of any term during an academic year. A degree may be conferred at the end of fall, winter, or summer terms; however, each year Burman University holds only one convocation ceremony. It occurs at the end of the winter term (April).”

Calling all international students! Register for our free webinar to learn about benefit and credit payments

Are you an international student studying in Canada? You're invited to join the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) on November 27 for a free webinar to learn about the benefit and credit payments you could get, some as soon as you arrive.

We'll talk about:

- the GST/HST credit and other government payments
- the Canadian tax system
- determining your residency status for tax purposes
- how to be scam smart
- digital and other CRA services, including free tax clinics

We will also hold a Q&A during the webinar to answer your questions live. Spaces are limited, so register for the webinar today!

If you are an organization that provides services to international students, help us spread the word. We encourage you to register your organization, share the event details with your clients, or even host a watch party!

The webinar is on Wednesday, November 27, 2024, at the following local times:

Register now	English	French
Alberta, Northwest Territories	12 pm	9 am
