Hi guys.

Just letting you know I'm going through a lot right now 🙄

One day, the mountain that is in front of you will be so far behind you, it will barely be visible in the distance. But the person you become in learning to get over it? That will stay with you forever. And that is the point of the mountain.

The Importance of Company Culture in Remote Work

COVID has significantly changed the way we work. For decades professionals have championed the importance of businesses developing a culture that supports a productive work environment. However with COVID measures, companies had to implement more remote work options which required more flexibility on how work is done. This presentation looks at how this change in the way we work influences the culture of businesses as a whole.
